

Business Lawyer of the Year

Sari Ann Strasburg (Strasburg Law P.L.L.C.)

New Hampshire, USA

Sari Ann Strasburg is the founder of the law firm Strasburg Law P.L.L.C. in Bedford, New Hampshire where she practices in the areas of business and operations, contracts, U.S. and international tax planning, and intellectual property including trademarks, joint ventures, and licensing.

Ms Strasburg received her Bachelor of Science degree from the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania and her Juris Doctor degree from Boston University School of Law, and has since accumulated 35 years of extensive professional success, specialising in representing U.S. and international manufacturing, technology, distribution, and service companies.

The Corporate LiveWire judges are impressed with the impact on and influence over the business law sector Ms Strasburg has had throughout her career. Today, she is licensed to practice law in Massachusetts and New Hampshire, and is a certified public accountant in New Hampshire and Illinois. Attorney Strasburg is also a member of the American, Massachusetts and New Hampshire bar associations, the NH Society of Certified Public Accountants, and the AICPA. At the NH Bar Association, she is past Chair of the Tax Law Section and of the Tax Committee for the International Law Section.

Moreover, Ms Strasburg has lectured for and participated in professional and educational organisations including the New Hampshire Bar Association, the New Hampshire Society of Certified Public Accountants, National Association of Tax

STRASBURG LAW P.L.L.C.

SARI ANN STRASBURG

Founder

www.straslaw.com

+1 603 471 0474

info@straslaw.com

Ms Strasburg's law firm won Corporate LiveWire's Excellence in Business Law award 2018, but it is her personal success and achievements as a lawyer that the judges honour this year.

Professionals, National Business Institute, Sterling Education, the International Trademark Association, the Licensing Executives Society, and the New Hampshire Business & Industry Association.

Furthermore, Ms Strasburg has applied her business and legal knowledge outside her firm. Her experience and qualifications include serving on boards of public and diverse non-profit companies.

Ms Strasburg's law firm won Corporate LiveWire's Excellence in Business Law award 2018, but it is her personal success and achievements as a lawyer that the judges honour this year. The judges believe that Ms Strasburg's achievements throughout her career prove her exceptional capabilities in providing effective legal services for the business sector. They also show her dedication to her continued development in the practice of business law and involvement with relevant bar associations.

Judge Andrew Walsh comments: "Ms Strasburg has dedicated more than 35 years to business law and we believe that she has shown an exceptional level of success during this time, having now established her own firm for over 16 years and gaining large influence in her jurisdiction."